THE BRITISH INTERNATIONAL SCHOOLS SOCIETY. CAIRO

September 15, 2011

Dear Parents,

The British International School Cairo (BISC) is owned and run by the British International School Society (BISS), a non-profit and non-governmental organization. The BISS functions under the auspices of the Egyptian Ministry of Solidarity.

All BISC parents are eligible for membership to the Society. Membership is annual and valid from September to August of every academic year. Membership to the society allows participation and attendance of the Annual General Meeting (AGM), submission of votes on Society issues, as well as submission of candidature for the BISC Board of Directors. The annual subscription fee for membership is 100L.E.

Requirements of eligibility for membership to the society are as follows :

1. being a full paying parent of a child attending BISC (if at any time school tuition is not paid in full by a Society member, membership immediately becomes null and void)
2. being of good character and reputation
3. being at least 25 years of age
4. paying an annual subscription fee of 100L.E.
5. having membership approved by the BISC Board of Directors

New members applying for membership to the Society are confirmed six months from the date of application provided that their application has been approved and all requirements have been met.

Effective September 25, 2011 application forms will be available on the BISC website. Parents may print and send the completed application with the required fees in a sealed envelope to the Business Office attention of Mr. Mohamed Mady. Any outstanding membership fees must also be paid in full for membership activation.

Please note when completing applications that there are two application forms; new applicants and renewals. Receipts will be issued when applications have been processed.

In order for applications to be processed please ensure that the following are included :

1. completed and signed application
2. photocopy of a photo ID (passport or national identity card)
3. membership fee of 100L.E. (and/or any outstanding balances)

Any queries may be directed to biss@bisc.edu.eg .

On behalf of the Board of Directors,

Yasser Hashem
Chairman
